Art Exhibitions:
Pace Prints:
A Master Printer’s Perspective
Dittmann Center, Flaten Art Museum

Museum hours
Friday: 10 a.m.–5 p.m.
Saturday: 10 a.m.–5 p.m.
Sunday: 12–5 p.m.

Fine art publisher Pace Prints issues work by some of the world’s most celebrated contemporary artists. Lesser-known are the master printers, whose technical expertise allows these artists to achieve the precise effects desired in their prints and whose innovations push the boundaries of the medium. This exhibition explores the intertwined relationship between artist and master printer through a collection of more than 20 prints including etchings, lithographs, monoprints, silk screens, woodcuts, and new technologies that synthesize digital tools and traditional approaches. Contemporary artists such as Ghada Amer and Reza Farkondeh, Chuck Close, Tara Donovan, Sol Lewitt, Claes Oldenburg, Kiki Smith, and James Turrell have partnered with Pace, collaborating with master printers to solve thrilling technical puzzles and challenge the boundaries of contemporary printmaking.

Curated by Bill Hall, Master Printer, Pace Prints; John Saurer, Assistant Professor of Art, St. Olaf College; and Jane Becker Nelson, Director, Flaten Art Museum.

1:30–3 p.m.  The Future of Higher Education and St. Olaf’s Place in It with Alan C. Shepard ’83  Buntrock Commons, Viking Theater
What are the different challenges faced by a college founded in 1874 and a university founded in 1974? One is located in a rural, Midwestern town serving 3,000 undergraduates while the other sits in a Canadian metropolis and hosts more than 45,000 undergraduates and graduate students. Join President David R. Anderson ’74 as he hosts Alan Shepard ’83, President of Concordia University–Montreal and a 2015 Alumni Achievement Award recipient, for a discussion on the future of higher education.

3:30–5 p.m.  The Role of Government in a Free, Fair, and Prosperous Minnesota  Buntrock Commons, Viking Theater
This panel discussion features three alumni who have played key roles in shaping policy at the state capitol: Senator John J. Marty ’78, former House Speaker Steve Sviggum ’73, and former Assistant Majority Leader Ember Reichgott Junge ’74. Star Tribune political columnist Lori Sturdevant moderates. Marty, a 2015 Alumni Achievement Award recipient, and Sviggum and Reichgott Junge (past alumni award recipients) will discuss the role of government, markets, and society in a free, fair, and prosperous Minnesota.
4 p.m.  Dance Department: We Dance: First Glimpse
Dittmann Center, Studio 1
See the beginning stages of dances being choreographed this fall by students and faculty.

4:30–7:30 p.m.  Dinner
Buntrock Commons, Stav Hall
Pay at the door. Cost: $10.50 plus tax for adults; children under 12 are half that price. St. Olaf students can use their Ole card.

7–9 p.m.  Reception and Gallery Talk
Dittmann Center, Flaten Art Museum
Join Justin Israels, Master Printer at Pace Prints, as he reveals the techniques and tales behind the prints in this exhibition. Refreshments will be served.

7:30 p.m.  King of the Hill
Buntrock Commons, Lion’s Pause
Watch the members of St. Olaf compete to be crowned King of the Hill! With impressive displays of talent and wit, participants will win the hearts of judges and audience members alike in pursuit of this auspicious title. Attendees of this event should be prepared for humor and innuendo primarily geared toward a college-aged audience. Sponsored by Student Activities.

8 p.m.  Ghosts of St. Olaf College Walking Tour
Begins on the steps of the Theater Building
(In the event of rain or severe weather, this event will be held in Tomson Hall 280.)
Vice President for Student Life Greg Kneser leads a campus tour of haunted venues on the Hill, ending behind Thorson Hall with a bonfire, hot chocolate, and the tale of the “Red Hat Boy.”

9 p.m.  Homecoming Bonfire
Behind Thorson Hall
(In case of rain or severe weather, this event will be held in Buntrock Commons Crossroads.)
Gather for a bonfire, hot chocolate, and s’mores. All alumni, family members, students, and community members are welcome to attend. The fire will be extinguished at 11 p.m.

9:30 p.m.  Improv: Scared Scriptless
Buntrock Commons, Lion’s Pause
Scared Scriptless performs short-form, high energy improvisation using audience input and suggestions. Join us for our first show of the year — it’ll be a roaring good time!

Saturday, September 26

7 a.m.–6 p.m.  Registration
Buntrock Commons, Crossroads

7–9:45 a.m.  Breakfast
Buntrock Commons, Stav Hall
Pay at the door. Cost: $6.75 plus tax for adults; children under 12 are half that price. St. Olaf students can use their Ole card.

7:15 a.m.  Homecoming 5K Run Check-In
North side of Skoglund Fieldhouse
(In the event of severe weather, this event will be canceled.)
Rain or shine. T-shirts will not be available after the race, so be sure to pick them up during the pre-race check-in. Non-registered runners, including current students, may participate for $5. However, T-shirts will not be available.

8 a.m.–3 p.m.  Search for the Golden Medallion
Join the search for the Golden Medallion by deciphering riddles to find its location. The first clue will be posted on the campus-wide television screens at 8 a.m., with subsequent clues unveiled throughout the day. Wonderful prizes could be yours!

8 a.m.  Homecoming 5K Run
Starts at Skoglund Fieldhouse
(In case of severe weather, this event will be canceled.)
Please check in prior to the race.

9 a.m.–5 p.m.  Art Barn Open House
Natural Lands, near the Wind Turbine
The Flaten Art Barn is a reconstruction of a 1932 building that served as the first home of the college’s art department. The new barn is a “zero-impact” building, meaning it’s completely self-sustaining, but was maintained to include much of the original integrity of the building, including many of the carvings done by Arnold Flaten ’22, an art professor and the first chair of the art department.
9–9:45 a.m.  Learning Seminar: The Piper Center for Vocation and Career
Regents Hall 150
Parents and students are invited to hear directly from current Oles who have leveraged the Piper Center’s career exploration resources to their fullest. During the session, attendees will learn how to take advantage of opportunities such as career coaching, student-alumni networking, career exploration trips, on-campus recruiting, internships, entrepreneurial programs, and much more. Parents will receive a complimentary copy of The College to Career Road Map: Parent Edition, a guide for helping parents who want to be involved in their son or daughter’s vocational journey.

9–9:45 a.m.  Study Travel: Excavation and Exploration in Turkey
Raveloag Memorial Library 525
Associate Professor of History and Ancient Studies Timothy Howe has mentored hands-on research in Turkey for the past couple of summers. He and several St. Olaf students have been excavating the Early Christian Church and Archbishop’s Palace at Antiocha ad Cragum on the southern coast. Learn about their archaeological methods and conservation techniques, and how you can join them in 2016!

9–10 a.m.  21st-Century Oles: Documenting the St. Olaf Difference with David L. Tiede ’62
Tomson Hall 280
A St. Olaf education offers an “uncommon journey” that combines academic rigor, an intensely residential experience, global engagement, and exploration of faith and values — or so we say. But do we really deliver on these promises? What is distinctive about a St. Olaf education? Join David L. Tiede ’62, the 2015 Distinguished Alumni Award recipient, Jo Beld, Vice President for Mission, Jason Ripley, Assistant Professor of Religion, and Rosalyn Eaton-Neeb ’87, Dean of Students, for a discussion of the college’s award-winning work in student learning assessment. Alumni, parents, and all who have a stake in St. Olaf’s distinctive excellence will be invited to add their voices to the discussion.

9–11:30 a.m.  The 5th Annual Admissions Legacy Homecoming Event
Buntrock Commons, Viking Theater
A special event for high school students whose parent(s), sibling(s) or relative(s) attend or attended St. Olaf!

9 a.m.  Check In — Refreshments
9:15 a.m.  Welcome
Legacy: Not a Reason to Come, Not a Reason to Stay Away
9:30 a.m.  STO Talk
Tom Williamson, Associate Professor of Anthropology and Department Chair
10 a.m.  Legacy Student Panel Discussion and Q&A
10:30 a.m.  Campus Tour
Even if you think you know the campus, take a fresh look with a current student tour guide. Tours end at the Homecoming luncheon on Buntrock Plaza.
Saturday, September 26 (continued)

10–11 a.m. Town Hall Gathering with President David R. Anderson ’74
Tomson Hall 280
All visiting alumni, family members, and campus guests are invited to an interactive presentation by President David R. Anderson ’74, who will provide his perspective on higher education in America today and St. Olaf College’s place in that landscape. Refreshments will be provided.

10 a.m.–12 p.m. 10–15–20 Ole Gear Sale
Buntrock Commons, Crossroads
Get into the game with our $10 - $15 - $20 clothing sale right outside the Bookstore. Sale continues at Manitou Field during the game.
