Senior French majors Breanna Olson and Emily Valeika have earned prestigious TAPIF French Government Teaching Fellowships which will enable them to spend the 2016-17 academic year teaching in France. Breanna will spend the year in Montpellier, Emily will be in Versailles. Breanna and Emily are part of a long line of French majors who, upon their graduation from St. Olaf, have been granted TAPIF fellowships. Congratulations, Breanna! Congratulations, Emily! Stay in touch with us.