

ST. OLAF COLLEGE 2016 PROFILE

Founded in 1874 by Norwegian Lutheran immigrants, St. Olaf is a nationally ranked liberal arts college of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America located in Northfield, Minnesota.

Location

Northfield is a historic river town of 20,000 in the southeast part of Minnesota, just 45 minutes from the Twin Cities and Minneapolis/St. Paul (MSP) international airport. Historic downtown Northfield, within walking distance of campus, features coffeehouses, sandwich shops, restaurants, gift stores, and local art galleries. Northfield is also home to Carleton College, an athletic rival whose campus is just across the Cannon River.

Campus

Known as “The Hill,” St. Olaf College’s picturesque 300-acre campus is home to 16 academic and administrative buildings, 30 student residences, and 10 athletic facilities. As a residential college, 95 percent of St. Olaf students reside in one of the 11 residence halls and 19 academic and special interest honor houses. Adjacent to campus are 325 acres of restored wetlands, woodlands, and native tallgrass prairie owned and maintained by St. Olaf. The college also has a utility-grade wind turbine, and 40 acres of college-owned land are blanketed with solar panels. The college’s solar subscriptions, combined with the energy generated by its wind turbine, have enabled St. Olaf to achieve 100 percent carbon-free electrical power.

Accreditation

St. Olaf College is accredited as a degree-granting institution by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. The college’s academic programs are also accredited by the American Chemical Society, Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education, Council on Social Work Education, Minnesota Board of Nursing, Minnesota Board of Teaching, National Association of Schools of Art and Design, National Association of Schools of Dance, National Association of Schools of Music, and National Association of Schools of Theatre.

Academic Calendar

St. Olaf College is one of only a handful of colleges and universities that adhere to a 4-1-4 academic calendar. The January Interim is a four-week period of intensive study that provides an opportunity for faculty and students to focus their attention on one course, offering time for in-depth study. Many students choose to pursue off-campus and international study during this time.

Academic Program

St. Olaf College offers a traditional four-year liberal arts education distinguished by both breadth and depth. Within the bachelor of arts degree program, academic majors are offered in 39 different disciplines and subject areas in the natural and mathematical sciences, fine arts, social sciences, and humanities. Students also may pursue an individually designed major on any subject that permits coherent, in-depth study using resources available through the college. In addition to the bachelor of arts degree in music, the Music Department provides a professional bachelor of music degree with majors in performance, church music, theory and composition, music education, and elective studies. To enrich their learning, St. Olaf students may choose among 23 different interdisciplinary concentrations, including Asian studies, environmental studies, linguistics, and neuroscience.

Athletics

27 varsity teams, 14 for men and 13 for women, participate in NCAA Division III intercollegiate sports in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, hockey, skiing (both Nordic and Alpine), soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field (both indoor and outdoor), volleyball, and wrestling. Athletic colors are black and gold, and the nickname for St. Olaf teams is the Oles. All varsity athletic teams compete in the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC), with the exception of wrestling and Alpine and Nordic skiing.

Music at St. Olaf

With eight choirs, two orchestras, and two bands of the highest quality and dozens of smaller ensembles from Japanese taiko drumming to jazz to lyric opera, approximately one-third of St. Olaf students are involved in music. The three flagship ensembles, the St. Olaf Choir, St. Olaf Orchestra, and St. Olaf Band, annually tour the United States and frequently travel abroad. The St. Olaf Christmas Festival, featuring more than 500 student musicians comprising five choirs and the St. Olaf Orchestra, is one of the oldest music celebrations of the season in the United States and is broadcast on PBS nationally.

Student Organizations

St. Olaf has 214 registered student organizations, including academic, athletic, awareness, multicultural, political, religious, service, and other special interest groups. Club sports include men's and women's rugby, men's and women's lacrosse, badminton, cycling, judo, dance, fencing, rowing, and waterskiing, among others. The Manitou Messenger is the student newspaper and KSTO 93.1 FM is the student-operated radio station.

Achievements and Recognitions

According to the National Science Foundation's Survey of Earned Doctorates, St. Olaf ranks 12th overall among the nation's 267 baccalaureate colleges in the number of graduates who go on to earn doctoral degrees. St. Olaf earned top-10 rankings in the following fields: mathematics/statistics and religion/theology (2nd), education (6th), life sciences (5th), chemistry (6th), and biological sciences (9th).

With data for 90 percent of the Class of 2015, 65 percent were employed within nine months of graduation, 23 percent enrolled in graduate school or other advanced study, and 8 percent engaged in full-time volunteer service.

Eight St. Olaf graduating seniors were named Fulbright Scholars for 2016–17. Since 1995, 118 St. Olaf graduates have received prestigious Fulbright scholarships.

Thirty-three St. Olaf students have received Goldwater scholarships since 1995. The scholarships, which are granted to sophomores and juniors in mathematics, science, and engineering, are awarded on the basis of academic merit.

More than two-thirds of all St. Olaf students study abroad before graduating. According to the Institute of International Education's Open Doors 2016 Report on International Educational Exchange, St. Olaf ranked 1st among baccalaureate institutions in the total number of students studying abroad for the 2014–15 academic year.

St. Olaf has earned seven Academic All-American selections: three in baseball and one each in football, volleyball, women's golf, and women's track and field. Ninety-three student-athletes received Academic All-Conference recognitions by the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in 2014–15.

St. Olaf has a strong track record of preparing students for careers in medicine and the health sciences. The average acceptance rate of St. Olaf's competitive applicants (defined as cumulative GPA > 3.59) to medical school (MD degree) from 2011–2016 was 75%, as compared to the overall national average of 47% (2010–2015 — the most recent years data is available). For applicants matriculating in 2016, the acceptance rate of St. Olaf's competitive applicants was 83%, with the total applicant acceptance rate at 70%.

St. Olaf had 13 National Merit Scholars in the first-year class that arrived on campus in the fall of 2016. In 2014, with 28 scholars St. Olaf ranked fifth among liberal arts colleges and 71st overall among all accredited four-year colleges and universities in the nation in the number of merit scholars in that year's class.
