

A Goldilocks approach to academic civic education

Kathy Tegtmeyer Pak

Department of Political Science

St. Olaf College

The house

PSCI 350 Immigration & Citizenship

- ▣ Comparative politics
- ▣ Junior and senior political science students
- ▣ Intense reading & writing
- ▣ Individual research

Too hot!

Open ended

Individuals

Scaffolding

Results

Growing Up Healthy

HOME

ABOUT US

LINK CENTER

RESOURCES

FARMER TO FAMILY

Research

This page is especially intended to serve as a reference for service providers to low-income and immigrant families in Rice County. It includes research, student projects, and news articles relevant to Growing Up Healthy's mission.

Children

Cultural Literacy

Education

General Social Determinants of Health

Health Care

Housing

Too filling?

Team

Ambition

Scheduling

After the Welcome Center:
Renewing Conversations about Immigration & Diversity in Faribault

Too cold

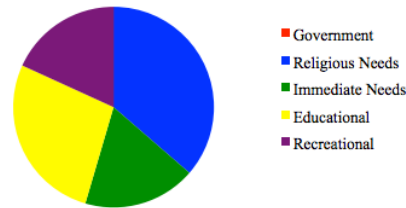

Team

Scale

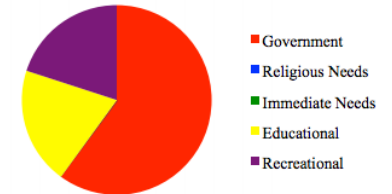

Audience

Events and Their Intended Audience

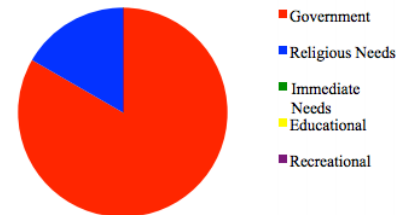

Intended Audience Reached

Intended Audience Not Reached

Cancelled Events

No dessert

Scale

Result

Partner

Communication

Mini-Conference on Communities and Schools in Faribault, Northfield and Owatonna

April 11, 2013

Just right?

Scale

Partner

Repetition

