

OLE Experience in Practice Assessment Rubric

ILO	Exemplary	Sufficient	Insufficient
#1) Identify emerging vocational and/or academic interests based on the experience. vocation: It's living your life on purpose, directed toward both your personal flourishing and the common good.	Identifies/names at least one vocational or academic interest based on the experience AND provides a specific example of a future action that they will take as a result.	Identifies/names at least one vocational or academic interest based on the experience but does not describe any future actions they will take as a result.	Provides no examples of a vocational or academic interest based on the experience.
#2) Integrate prior/concurrent coursework with the experience.	Connects St. Olaf coursework with OEP experience with a specific example.	Names general skill or knowledge base, likely acquired through coursework, but does not give a specific example.	Provides no connection between St. Olaf coursework and OEP experience.
#3) Evaluate skills and roles, including those that help them contribute to the community.	Evaluates/integrates roles/skills and contributions in a named community/current experience.	Identifies roles and skills AND a named community. This may include a rearticulation of the named community from the prompt.	Provides no evidence or is not able to articulate any roles OR skills that contributed to a named community.