

The St. Olaf College Department of Classics presents
VIDULARIA ("The Lost Bag")
an ancient Roman comedy by Plautus

CAST OF CHARACTERS
(in order of appearance)

College students: Willa Samuelson '28 & Aveline Brown '29
Ancient manuscript: Sam Barbato '27

Chorus: Jessica Schmidt '26, Rosemary Hartless '26, Claire Miller '29,
Emery Jansen '26, MaKenzie Kuckkan '26, Violet Ecklund-Johnson '26

Venus & Vulcan: Emma Winkler '26 & Alex Van Etten '27

Pirate #1: Woody Hewett '27

Fisherfolk Couple #1: Atlas Conger '28 & Cassidy Goodell '28

Pirate #2: Julia Thomas '27

Fisherfolk Couple #2: Timothy Warneck '27 & Sydney Hugdahl '27

PERFORMANCE DATES

Wednesday, March 4, 2026

Great Oaks Academy, Farmington - 8:30 a.m.

Great Oaks Academy, Upper School, Eagan - 10:00 a.m.

Agamim Classical Academy, Edina - 1:30 p.m.

University of St. Thomas, St. Paul - 3:30 p.m.

Thursday, March 5, 2026

Parnassus Preparatory School, Maple Grove - 9:00 a.m.

Valley View Middle School, Edina - 11:30 a.m.

Blake School, Upper School, Minneapolis - 2:00 p.m.

Macalester College, St. Paul - 4:45 p.m.

Friday & Saturday, March 6-7, 2026

St. Olaf College, Christiansen Hall of Music, Room 233 (= Fosnes Hall), 7:30 p.m.

The two performances at St. Olaf are free and open to the public.
Children welcome! No knowledge of Latin needed. Running time = 45 mins.