Explore everything from acting fundamentals to stage combat with others who love theater as much as you do. This camp is an exciting fun-filled experience where we stress the collaborative nature of live theater. Through teamwork, we create a safe environment that encourages participants to think creatively and expressively. Our goal is to teach, guide, and nurture the emerging theater artists as well as those interested in learning about the theater. This is a low-stress, high-energy experience. Come and have fun, make new friends, and learn about the art and craft of theater on the beautiful St. Olaf campus in historic Northfield, Minnesota.
