Music Academy

June 21–27, 2020

$680

For students who have completed grades 8, 9, 10, 11, or 12

Join high school students from around the nation for an intense week of music-making under the direction of St. Olaf College's acclaimed music faculty.

Your days will be filled with classes, lessons, and rehearsals, followed by evening faculty recitals, student performances, and social and recreational activities directed by St. Olaf music students. The final concert will be streamed online. You will return home with new skills, new energy, new friends, and a heightened commitment to music.

Ensembles

Band • Orchestra • Choir

This performance-based experience will challenge you to stretch your musical abilities as you participate in band, orchestra or choir ensembles (you may choose two ensembles) and take elective classes. Two 30-minute private lessons are included with tuition, with the option of purchasing two additional lessons.

Visit stolaf.edu/camps for class offerings and descriptions.

Theater Camp

June 21–27, 2020

$630

Student ages 12–17

Join us for an exciting experience at the St. Olaf Summer Theater Camp. You'll learn about many facets of theater from creative professionals. Explore everything from acting fundamentals to stage combat with others who love theater as much as you do. This camp is an exciting fun-filled experience where we stress the collaborative nature of live theater. Through teamwork, we create a safe environment that encourages participants to think creatively and expressively. Our goal is to teach, guide, and nurture the emerging theater artists as well as those interested in learning about the theater. This is a low-stress, high-energy experience.

Camp Features

- Features classes, rehearsals, and final showcase
- Low stress, high energy experience
- Growth opportunity for all levels
- Talented instructors and guest specialists

Classes

Campers will participate in acting, stage combat, musical theater, intro to tech theater, and movement class.
