The Volleyball Camp Experience

St. Olaf volleyball camps are designed for girls who have been playing competitive volleyball in associations or school programs and have yet to complete their senior year of high school. This camp provides a complete experience on the beautiful St. Olaf campus in historic Northfield, Minnesota. Volleyball training and other activities are balanced with recreational activities that are supervised by camp coaches and counselors.

Camp fee includes lodging, meals, and camp T-shirt. Campers are housed in comfortable, secure student residence halls. Bedding and bath towels are provided. Coaches and counselors live in the residence halls and provide 24-hour supervision.

St. Olaf employs a professional security staff that is on duty 24/7. Meals are prepared by Bon Appétit. Salad bar, grilled meats and veggies, hot entrées, cereals, yogurt, fresh fruit, a deli station, soup, and dessert station are some of the healthy options.

Camp Features Include

- Professional, individualized coaching
- Camp coaches and counselors are St. Olaf volleyball coaches and players
- Low athlete-to-coach ratio
- Team-building principles
- Daily court sessions
- Small group discussions
- Supervised recreational activities

Camp Description

Session 2: St. Olaf Volleyball Camp is structured for volleyball players looking to improve fundamental skills, increase their love for the sport, and prepare them for their future competition.

Session 1 & 3: Targeted at experienced volleyball players who are ready to learn technical skill development, gain playing experience, and prepare for the upcoming high school season. It is a chance to learn about volleyball, meet new people, and make a connection with college athletes. This camp will also focus on the mental side of training with two 'Mind Gym' sessions. Providing a unique opportunity to take their game to the next level.

Roommates

Campers are housed two per room and may request a specific roommate. Roommates need to request each other on their registration form. Camp space is filled on a first-come basis and spots cannot be held for a late-registering roommate.

Meet The Coaches

Emily Foster will be heading into her fifth season as an Ole coach. Before coming to St. Olaf, Foster spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach at Division II Northern State University, where she handled defense and was the program's recruiting coordinator. Before her stint at Northern State, Foster spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at MSU-Mankato. Foster was a three-time All-American and two-time MIAC MVP at the University of St. Thomas. She helped lead the Tommies to three NCAA appearances, including a trip to the quarterfinals in her final season.

Damien Fox is in his second season as an assistant coach for the St. Olaf volleyball team. Fox was the head coach at Faribault High School from 2013–15 and was an assistant coach at Lakeville North for the past two seasons, including their 2017 Class AAA State Championship team. Fox also coaches for the Northern Lights Volleyball Club and spends his summers coaching volleyball camps.

Katie Payne is in her first season as an assistant coach for the St. Olaf volleyball program and Vital Volleyball Club for the 2019–20 season. Payne, who played three years for the Oles and graduated in 2018, finished her career as a co-captain of the 2017 team that advanced to the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) semifinals. Payne spent her first year out of college as an assistant coach for the Edina Volleyball Association.

Ole Pride Volleyball Staff

Coach Foster will complete her staff with current Ole Volleyball athletes and members of the coaching staff. The energetic and talented Ole players will provide direction, encouragement, and a glimpse into what life is like at St. Olaf. It is a great opportunity for younger players to interact with college athletes.
