

Betty Stromseth served as an Adviser to International Students and as Assistant Director and, later, Director of International Studies. She subsequently held a position with Seminars International of Chicago as their coordinator of study abroad programs for the Associated Colleges of the Midwest. Walter belongs to the St. Olaf Class of 1950. After earning the B.D. and Ph.D. at Yale, Walter returned to St. Olaf in 1956 as a member of the Religion and Philosophy departments. Walter and Betty believe that Christ's spirit of reconciliation and inclusive community make intercultural understanding and inter-religious dialog a Christian imperative.
