

Why Participate

✓ Connection

It is elemental that when children engage with other children beyond school, they have improved confidence and social skills.

✓ Creativity

It is elemental that art is essential to a child's development.

✓ Elemental Engagement

Fire, Water, Earth, and Wind are elements that can proclaim the Scriptures well, especially for children.

✓ Faith

It is elemental that a spark that seeks God resides within everything God created.

In an Nutshell

Art Encounters offer engagement with creative arts activities that tell stories of faith.

Family Outdoor Chapel events include a meal, live music, holy communion, and things like campfires, bounce houses, or egg hunts. At these gatherings, the children will share what they have created with all who come and help tell the stories of faith they have encountered. Everyone is encouraged to come.
