

Career Exploration Worksheet

Using resources found on the Piper Center's website, find the following information for each occupation that is of interest to you. Use more than one source to obtain your data, and incorporate any work experience you have had.

---

1. Occupation name
2. Nature of the work
3. Working conditions
4. Education and training requirements (undergraduate courses, experiences, standardized exams, additional education/graduate level requirements)
5. Number of people employed in this occupation: state, region, and nation
6. Outlook – what is predicted for jobs in the future?
7. Salary/earnings (entry-level and range)
8. Related occupations

Reflection: Based on what you have just learned, which aspects of this occupation sound most appealing? Least appealing? Do you think you could be satisfied working in this occupation?
