TOWARDS SYSTEMIC EQUITY IN PUBLIC EDUCATION: RESEARCH AGENDA AND FUTURE DIRECTIONS

Mollie Weeks

University of Minnesota

Tuesday, November 18

3:30 PM | RNS 150

This presentation will outline systemic inequities in U.S. K-12 public education and how policies and practices contribute to unequal educational opportunities. Dr. Weeks will share an example from her research to show how data can inform school behavioral policy. Attendees will learn about her ongoing work to promote evidence-based practices that reduce educational disparities for marginalized students and examine policy changes aimed at advancing equity. The talk will also highlight future research directions focused on reshaping systems toward greater educational equity.
